Start

End

One spooky Halloween night while you were trick or treating, you knocked on the door of an old house. When the door opened, a tall pale man answered. You yelled, "Trick or treat," hoping to get some nice candy, but the pale man only shouted, "Trick!" and pulled a lever near the door. The porch you were standing on quickly gave way to reveal a trap door into this dungeon maze! Find your way out before the pale man comes to get you!
